R Makeover Course

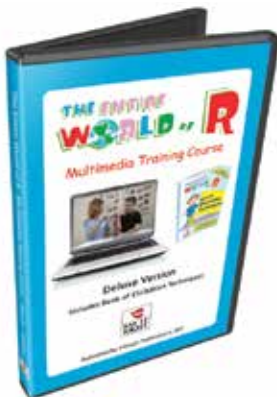

Frustrated with treating vocalic /r/ disorders? I've spent 16 years speaking about /r/ disorders and have asked hundreds of therapists what issues are the most frustrating while working with students with /r/ issues. This course offers a new and refreshing approach to treat the most difficult of sounds based on the answers the speech pathologists have given me. Backed with extensive research and field testing, a complete phonemic approach to evaluating and treating /r/ is presented based on the 32 different types of /r/. This course has student videos to provide visual examples of intervention techniques to share with parents, teachers and/or students. The course will be worth .55 CEU's.

Evaluate /r/

4

The second step to treating an /r/ speech sound disorder is to evaluate.

The Entire World of R™ Advanced Screening

The Advanced Screening for /r/ is the most comprehensive and advanced screening for vocalic /r/ ever created. Determine exactly which vocalic /r/s (r-controlled vowel) and in which context your students are having difficulty. Assesses 947 /r/ words. Complements the protocols from The Entire World of R Book of Elicitation Techniques. Comes with a pad of 30 (11" x 17") forms, student copies, results forms, and The Elicitation Probe for all consonantal-vocalic combinations. Screen all 32 Rs—vocalic, blends, prevocalic (initial), and /r/. Includes lots of forms for easy assessment of /r/ articulation disorders.

SELF-STUDY PROGRAMS

The Entire World of R™ Multimedia Training Course—Deluxe Edition

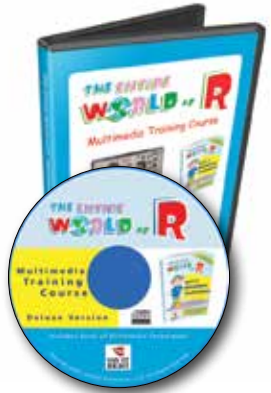

Want to learn about evaluating and treating /r/ in a lively and interactive manner? How about seeing and hearing real-world examples of students being treated by experts? This course is it!

We've taken everything we know about /r/, condensed it down, and packed it full of real-world examples. Contains videos of 20 real students being evaluated and treated using The Entire World of R™ so you can learn how to best implement the protocols and strategies yourself.

The Advanced Screening for /r/ and Choosing a Target Check List are included with all courses. Also contains a section on “ear” training/hearing /r/ sounds.

The course is self-paced for individual use, but would also be great as a group training. This course is for any SLP who works with clients who have /r/ articulation disorders. Deluxe edition contains a digital copy of The Entire World of R™ Book of Elicitation Techniques and a copy of The Entire World of R™ Screening Form. Windows only.

The Entire World of R™ Book of Elicitation Techniques

This resource contains a wealth of tips, tricks, and techniques to elicit and remediate the difficult /r/ phoneme. Provides detailed therapy methods, /r/ probe word lists, and step-by-step instructions on how to elicit each sound variation of vocalic /r/. A number of treatment methods, such as use of coarticulation, whisper, cognates, single vs. multiple syllables, and nonsense words, are included with clear, easy-to-follow examples. All protocols are presented in a phonetically consistent manner for easy understanding of concepts and faster response.

Loaded with useful tools including: coarticulation worksheets for each sound, daily tally sheets, progress charts, a graduation certificate, checklists for choosing targets, goal sheets, visual teaching tools, and much more.

Find the answers to the questions: Where do I start with /r/? and How do I remediate chronic and persistent /r/s? Follow the simple research-tested protocols to easily kick-start your evidence-based practice. The detailed step-by-step instructions on how to properly evaluate students, choose appropriate intervention targets, and determine present levels of performance will ease your /r/ frustrations. Five complete case studies of real students that illustrate target selection and treatment, are included.

If you use the recommended treatment techniques, your students will be saying /r/ in no time.

The Entire World of R™ Secret Message

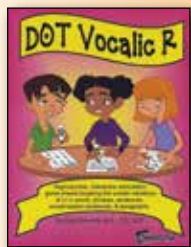

This book has been developed to help students develop mastery of /r/ variations while solving basic, everyday puzzles.

It is suggested that the student with an /r/ speech sound disorder be given the Entire World of R™ Advanced Screening (see page 3) to determine which of the 32 variations of /r/ have not been mastered. After you have determined an /r/ variation (e.g., ear initial) that the student was stimulable for or could correctly produce, find the corresponding chapter of the Entire World of R™ Secret Message and use that section for practice. Keep track of correctly produced words during production practice and write them on one of the Correctly Produced Words List forms.

5-Minute Kids™ Artic Therapy

A Drill-Based Program for Individual Articulation Therapy!

The 5-Minute Kids program is a creative, effective service delivery model for students working on articulation skills. Very often in traditional pull-out group therapy, students in the group alternate during the sessions between actively working on sounds with the SLP to passively waiting while others receive direct instruction and practice.

5-Minute Kids™ is a clear, step-by-step program developed by a speech-language pathologist to help children with speech sound disorders. The intent of this program is to minimize the amount of time a child spends out of the classroom, and to improve the quality of time the child spends working on individual speech sounds in therapy. A student enrolled in the 5-Minute Kids program receives individual therapy for five- to seven-minute sessions, two to four times per week. The child practices targeted speech sounds by repeating words, naming pictures, reading, and participating in conversation. The suggestions for data collection and organization are also beneficial for serving students using the RtI model.

The Program Manual includes step-by-step instructions; a variety of data collection sheets; Pre- and Post-testing forms for R, S/Z, SH/CH, K/G, and F/V/TH; and pictures for baseline word items. Grades Pre-K and up.

R Makeover Course

Frustrated with treating vocalic /r/ disorders? I've spent 16 years speaking about /r/ disorders and have asked hundreds of therapists what issues are the most frustrating while working with students with /r/ issues. This course offers a new and refreshing approach to treat the most difficult of sounds based on the answers the speech pathologists have given me. Backed with extensive research and field testing, a complete phonemic approach to evaluating and treating /r/ is presented based on the 32 different types of /r/. This course has student videos to provide visual examples of intervention techniques to share with parents, teachers and/or students. The course will be worth .55 CEU's.

R Makeover Course will have a $25.00 off coupon when customers spend $99.00 or more in products on the website.

RMC-001...R Makeover Course...See Price Sheet

Missing /r/ Links

Solve with the R Makeover Course

1. Lack of /r/ education-phonemic approach
2. SLP perceptions with /r/
3. Lack of comprehensive evaluation
4. Lack of customized target
5. Lack of success with tongue placement
6. Lack of phonetically consistent production practice lists
7. Lack of strategy for chronic /r/ students
8. Lack of customized homework
9. Lack of generalization
10. Lack of timely graduation

EAR Training Tips Course Utilizing the Advanced Screening

Ear Training Course using the Single Word Screening

.1 CEU's

This is an introductory course which helps you to practice listening, watching and scoring the various /r/ productions. Learn to listen for the 9 vocalic /r/ allophones, prevocalic /r/ and medial and final /r/. This course provides validation to your scoring by video examples of a student producing the various /r/ sounds and scored responses and feedback from Christine Ristuccia and the opportunity to re watch it from a new standpoint. This course is ideal for refining your listening skills and for new clinicians.

Learner Outcomes:

1. Participants will list out the 4 categories of /r/.
2. Participants will list out visual and auditory behaviors that occur during unnatural /r/ productions.
3. Participants will list the 6 steps involved in the ear training screening process.
4. Participants will list the two differences between the traditional /r/ approach versus the phonemic approach (how /r/ sounds).

The Entire World of R 10 Step Process

10 Step Process

1. Evaluate the 32 /r/ allophones utilizing The Entire World of R Screening Tool.
2. Write down the correct /r/ productions based upon the screening results.
3. Choose a customized /r/ target.
4. Determine natural tongue position.
5. Break habits and dysfunctional patterns with chronic /r/ students by determining natural tongue position taking The Entire World of R: Chronic /r/ Course or R Makeover Course.
6. Practice Utilizing Target production probe lists from the Entire World of R Instructional Workbook.
7. Practice at least 150 correct /r/ words per session.
8. Send home homework consisting of correctly produced /r/ words.
9. Measure carryover: correctly produced /r/ words heard in speech session.
10. Start process over once 80% or greater accuracy is obtained for chosen target at the sentence level.
