

K&G Book of Stories

Canoeing

Story 3: Initial K

Review the following words:

Karen Case calm canoe
Cary capsized capsized
Canoeing careful camp

Karen was at camp with her friend Cary. It was time for canoeing and they wore bathing suits just in case they capsized. They remembered some rules for safe canoeing. Be careful entering a canoe; Only use the canoe on calm days. Stay away from white water. Karen and Cary had a turn paddling the canoe and followed all the rules. They had fun and they were happy that they did not capsize.

Where were Karen and Cary? _____

Why did they wear bathing suits? _____

Name two rules of safe canoeing? _____

K & G Book of Stories
©2009 Say It Right™ www.sayitright.org

15

Gertie's Flowers

Story 3: Initial G

Review the following words:

Gertie girl grew gathered good-bye

Gertie was a girl who planted flowers in the early summer. Gertie weeded, fertilized and watered her flowers. After the flowers grew, Gertie gathered some every few days and put them into a vase inside the house. When the first frost arrived in the fall, the flowers died and Gertie said good-bye to her flowers. Gertie knew that she had to wait until it got warm again to grow more flowers.

What was the girl's name? _____

Where did Gertie put the flowers after they grew? _____

What did Gertie have to say to her flowers after the first frost? _____

K & G Book of Stories
©2009 Say It Right™ www.sayitright.org

47

The Entire World of

K&G Book of Stories

Sheila McGovern, M.S., CCC-SLP
Christine L. Ristuccia, M.S., CCC-SLP

Illustrated by Kiera Davenport

www.SayItRight.org

Work on phoremic awareness and production practice with K & G students. The stories all centered on Initial, Medial and Final word positions for each story. Each story includes: target word lists, comprehension questions for language and articulation studies.

ISBN-10: 0-9760490-7-4
ISBN-13: 9780976049074

